Hyatt Palm Springs, California

The newly re-launched hotel features what the hotel calls a “Wow Cart” that “rolls” by every guest room from 4-6 pm and offers complimentary items including: bottled water, soft drinks, freshly baked cookies, whole fruit, fun size candies, ice, cups, utensils and napkins! This is a super nice feature to have when travelling as there is always one of these items above you either need or want!

The Hollywood Hotel (<http://hollywoodhotel.net/>)

Hollywood Hotel – Exterior – Fountain Entrance

This venerable hotel that was originally located on Hollywood Boulevard and then reopened in 1964 on hipster Vermont Ave. in the heart of East Hollywood, not only offers complimentary Wi-Fi and parking, but is also known for its hot, hearty free breakfast. This breakfast includes 10 varieties of cereal, muffins, bagels, pastries, croissants, breads and fresh fruit as well as an egg station for made to order omelets with up to eight different fillings, scrambled, fried or just plain egg whites. There is also sausage, cheese and a variety of cold cuts & flour tortillas to fill with your choice of fillings. It is always awesome when a hotel offers free breakfast, so you can get straight into your travel journeys for the day without trying to figure out where to dine as the first item on your list for the day!
