

LUXURY TRAVEL MAGAZINE

Luxury Seasonal Hotels Set to Reopen

February 16, 2016 -

Seasonal hotels and resorts around the globe are preparing to reopen their doors in a few weeks after being closed for the winter months unveiling a flurry of news for guests from multi-phase renovations, new guest programming and special offers.

Summer adventures

Jumeirah Port Soller Hotel & Spa | Mallorca, Spain

Built on a cliff overlooking Port Soller in Mallorca, Jumeirah Port Soller Hotel & Spa is connected by scented gardens and magnificent views of one of the most beautiful horse shoe bays on the North West coast of the island. The hotel is reopening for its fifth season on March 18 with a special early season offer on Superior rooms. The package includes; daily breakfast for two at the stunning Cap Roig restaurant, full access to the hotel's sumptuous Talise Spa including a selection of massages and treatments, access to the hammam, outdoor heated hydro pool and Jacuzzi with views of the Tramuntana mountains, a UNESCO Heritage Site and a complimentary shuttle to the picturesque fishing village of Port Soller for those seeking to explore the local culture. Guests can stroll along the promenade, hire a bike or take the historic tram to Soller for the Saturday market.

Jumeirah Bodrum Palace | Istanbul, Turkey

Jumeirah Bodrum Palace, an ornate luxury hotel overlooking the Aegean Sea, opens on May 1 for just its second season! Set along the spectacular Bodrum coast with the Aegean Sea as its outlook, Jumeirah Bodrum Palace is nestled in the natural beauty of Zeytinlikahve Cove. With accommodation consisting exclusively of suites and villas, each offering commanding views over the Aegean Sea, Jumeirah Bodrum Palace provides a unique balance between luxury, comfort and seclusion.

Grand Hotel Tremezzo | Lake Como, Italy

The historic five-star resort on Lake Como, Italy has been owned by the same family for the last three centuries. Built in the age of Art Nouveau glamour, the hotel overlooks the Italian lake town of Bellagio and recently completed a spa renovation / expansion, added a spa suite to their collection of 91 suites and after 3-years of renovations the hotel, that was originally built in 1910 is better than ever. This March Grand Hotel Tremezzo, will unveil its new T spa, an 18th century structure with over 1,000 square meters of wellness space featuring five treatment rooms, an infinity pool, a hammam, a nail studio and Suite Emilia a suite within Villa Emilia offering private access to the spa and hammam.

Quick Weekend Getaways

Mission Point Resort | Mackinac Island, MI

Set on 18 acres of lakefront property on the east end, where Lake Huron meets Lake Michigan, lies the 239 room Mission Point Resort, located on Mackinac Island, a classic Midwest escape, a destination ripe with Americana and “distinctly Mackinac” flavor based on timelessness and tradition. A pristine locale where transportation comes in the form of horse drawn buggies and bikes. This year the resort is embarking on its second phase of a multi-year renovation, to be completed for the seasonal reopening on May 1. This season, to reaffirm its legacy as a Michigan landmark, Mission Point Resort will rollout a new spa and wellness experience, upgraded accommodations, elevated food & beverage programming and a brand new Marketplace at Mission Point Resort.

Winnetu Oceanside Resort | Martha's Vineyard, MA

The Winnetu Oceanside Resort is located where everyone visiting Martha's Vineyard wants to be at South Beach in Edgartown and is the island's ultimate family resort re-opening its doors on April 14, 2016. Family owned and styled after the traditional New England grand seaside resorts, the Winnetu includes 58 suites, studios and private cottages, each equipped with air-conditioning, kitchenettes and separate living areas, many of which have unobstructed ocean views. The Winnetu is opening a NEW Poolside Grill restaurant, Cape Pogue cottage and refreshing The Dunes bar area and kids section.

Jenny Lake Lodge | Grand Teton National Park (Wyoming)

2016 marks the National Park Service Centennial and what better place to spend it than by staying at Jenny Lake Lodge in Grand Teton National Park - a AAA Four-Diamond resort at the foot of the Tetons. A touch of luxury to your national park experience, Jenny Lake offers award-winning dining with a full gourmet breakfast and five-course rotating dinner menu - included in your stay. Also included are horseback riding and the use of cruiser bicycles.

Jackson Lake Lodge | Grand Teton National Park (Wyoming)

The views from Jackson Lake Lodge in Grand Teton National Park are nothing short of breathtaking. Imagine 60-foot windows along the entire lobby with panoramic views of Jackson Lake and the Teton Range welcoming you to the Park. The full-service eco hotel serves as a hub of activity in the Park and boasts suites and cottage rooms.

Colter Bay Village | Grand Teton National Park (Wyoming)

An idyllic locale for an adventurous family, Colter Bay Village offers charming mountain cabins on Jackson Lake with the majestic Tetons as a backdrop. From kayaking, canoeing, horseback riding, log cabins, 'cowboy breakfasts,' wildlife viewing, campfires and more, Colter Bay Village is an affordable vacation with memories waiting to be made.

Headwaters Lodge at Flagg Ranch | Grand Teton National Park (Wyoming)

Looking to unplug and unwind? Headwaters Lodge is the perfect place (there is no cell phone service or WiFi). Headwaters is also ideal for fly fishing trips, rafting on the Snake River, guided trips through Yellowstone or Grand Teton National Park, horseback riding, wildlife viewing, photography and so much more.

Mountain Trek | Nelson, British Columbia

A true backcountry experience, Mountain Trek in Nelson, British Columbia will soon debut for the season come April 30. A fitness and wellness retreat, unlike other boot camp/weight-loss programs that focus entirely on shedding pounds, Mountain Trek focuses on metabolism, providing a holistic approach to every guest while addressing hormonal rebalance and the mind-body-spirit connection. While weight-loss is an unavoidable side effect, guests leave with the newfound ability of reclaiming their overall functional health.

- Mountain Trek's British Columbia location is the only mountain-based, hiking fitness and weight loss program in North America, with a beautiful lodge and limitless trails in pristine landscapes to explore in the area
- Mountain Trek's small groups allow guests to immerse themselves in spectacular natural landscapes — groups are limited to 16 people to provide a focused and personalized experience, with plenty of time and space each day
- Activities range from hiking, yoga, massage and detox treatments, and a variety of fitness and nutrition classes including: lectures on stress management, nutrition, sleep health, metabolism, detoxification and goal setting and will power
- Guests will find fresh, healthy, calorie-controlled spa cuisine with a variety of beef, fish, poultry and vegetarian meals (catering to all dietary restrictions and food preferences), helping to instill these eating habits into a permanent part of their lifestyles. Mountain Trek offers a complete gluten-free experience
- Average weight loss for a one week program ranges from 4.5 - 6.5 lbs per week for women and 8 - 10 lbs per week for men