

THE 13 SEXIEST HOTELS FOR MAKING BABIES OR FORGETTING ABOUT THE KIDS YOU HAVE

THE SEXIEST HOTELS WITHOUT THE KIDS

We've rounded up some of the sexiest hotels on our bucket list for adult-only trips, no matter what you are into. Even if you are unable to get away around Valentine's Day, it is always a good idea for parents to spend time alone, out of the house, and at a hotel. Warning: These hotels are so sexy that you and your partner could consider browsing their websites as foreplay.

FOR SUBURBAN PARENTS IN NEED OF A DOSE OF COOL

GANSEVOORT PARK AVENUE, NEW YORK

Just walking into the lobby at the Gansevoort Park Avenue makes you feel like you're at the right party and can make you feel the glory of your DINK days. During the warmer months the rooftop pool and lounge are decidedly sexy.

SPECTATOR HOTEL, CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA

The new Spectator Hotel has brought a luxurious Roaring Twenties vibe to Low Country with the first hotel to offer butler service. Don't drink and drive. Borrow one of the many types of bicycles the hotel offers to explore the area then sample the impressive custom cocktails at the hotel bar. Retire to rooms where your butler has unpacked your luggage and is waiting to deliver your morning coffee.

FOR PARENTS WHO CRAVE SUN AND SAND

FAENA, MIAMI BEACH

Did you swoon as a young lass to Ewan McGregor in Moulin Rouge or Leonardo di Caprio's Romeo? Enjoy breathtaking balcony views of Miami Beach while lounging in the excessive Baroque infused rooms at the Faena Hotel. As with anything director Baz Luhrmann touches, it is a true feast for the eyes fusing the fusing white and red interior aesthetics of Miami Beach and Buenos Aires. Where else would the narcoleptic Argentinian from Moulin Rouge want to sleep? The South American holistic spa, Tierra Santa Healing House, claims to be a one of a kind in the US.

THE VICEROY, ANGUILLA

Los Angeles Designer Kelly Wearstler has brought her incredible mixture of brushed gold and organic elements to create a stunning Caribbean resort at the Viceroy in Anguilla. Though the kids have lots to do here, leave them home or at the kids club to enjoy the spaces and rooms inspired by the female body. A fabulous adult amenity is the number of private plunge pools on many of the balconies.

ESPERANZA, CABO SAN LUCAS, MEXICO

This Cabo San Lucas favorite for honeymooners reopened last year with even more spectacular rooms, infinity pools, and hundreds of candles that are lit every night at the Esperanza Resort. Auberge Hotels have been rejuvenating parents for many years at their West Coast properties known for high-end California design, natural-leaning spas, and epicurean offerings.

FOR PARENTS WHO SEEK THE DELICIOUS

THE OLD NO. 77 HOTEL & CHANDLERY, NEW ORLEANS

This new hotel near the French Quarter presents a casual, brick-exposed serving of hipsterdom with both a pillow and spiritual menu of curated titles and an art vending machine. The Old No. 77 Hotel boasts Chef Nina Compton's Compère Lapin opened to rave reviews for her cuisine blending New Orleans, Caribbean, French, and Italian flavors.

THE PRESS HOTEL, PORTLAND, MAINE
 Portland, Maine is low-key foodie paradise for couples looking for value. The new Press Hotel offers the hipster couple a Valentines approach for those who shy away from the obvious roses and chocolates: aphrodisiac tasting menus and hipster love notes drafted from one of the many vintage typewriters like those adorning the hotel lobby walls.

CASA DE SIERRA NEVADA, SAN MIGUEL DE ALLENDE, MEXICO

For those seeking art and architecture all around, the Casa de Sierra Nevada offers a luxury respite in the heart of the historic city considered the most beautiful in Mexico. The Sazón cooking school at the hotel will teach you classic Mexican treats, but one could travel to the Belmond property simply for the ultimate Talavera tiled bathrooms to soak at the copper tubs.

AND IN THE ROLE-PLAYING CATEGORIES...

FOR PARENTS WHO LIKE MASTERPIECE THEATRE

THE MERCHANT, SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS

This old house was built on a sea merchant's career of trading rum, pepper, and silks. The Merchant is one of the Lark Hotel's newest properties, the high design of this boutique hotel in Salem, Massachusetts offers a chance to sleep where Washington did. (We don't judge you if you found that last fact a turn-on) We're in love with the brightly painted original woodwork of the rooms that all come with gas fireplaces.

BLANTYRE, LENOX, MASSACHUSETTS

Do you and your partner enjoy Downton Abbey? Head to Blantyre in the Berkshires in between Boston and New York, a Gilded Age estate turned Relais Chateaux hotel. The public spaces and period furniture are worthy of the show's set, and you'll find everyone's wit and charm elevate from such a formal atmosphere. Find your inner Lady Mary and own it.

FOR PARENTS WITH FRONTIER FANTASIES

Triple Creek Ranch, Darby, Montana

This all-inclusive resort offers lots to do before retreating to your personal log cabin. Take nature safaris of the Montana landscape to see roaming bison under the big sky or try sapphire panning, fly fishing, and horseback riding. For the ultimate pre-arrival to Triple Creek Ranch, watch Legends of the Fall and vow to grow your hair out like Julia Ormond.

Dunton Hot Springs, Dolores, Colorado

Dunton Hot Springs is an abandoned ghost town that has been salvaged into a luxury resort near Telluride, Colorado. This Relais Chateaux property is an all-inclusive retreat with each party given their own restored log cabin, one of which has its own hot spring inside. For those who seek unlimited outdoor activities including tours to nearby Mesa Verde National Park to see archeological sites of the Ancestral Puebloans' cliff dwellings from 1000 AD.

AND FOR THE MOST OUTRAGEOUS VALENTINE PACKAGE EVER

HOTEL PALOMAR, PHILADELPHIA

Hotel Palomar Philadelphia offers its Drunk In Love package for the ultimate hotel room rendezvous. Let's be honest. You might have to be drunk to request this package in the first place.

In addition to a night in the presidential suite you'll receive an intimacy kit filled with imaginative goodies beyond the token condoms and lubricant from The Velvet Lily, an upscale neighborhood sex shop. Included is a boudoir photo shoot with a female photographer from DollFace Studios. Better call her after you've enjoyed the in room tasting menu with custom cocktails, lots of custom cocktails. A friendly reminder to disable your Wi-Fi devices until the morning when you are sober. #dontpostboudoirpics #ever

This package is only available Valentine's Day weekend and is $1,999.
