

Anguilla's New Zemi Beach House Now Taking Reservations

By Newswire | November 9, 2015

Zemi Beach House, developed by the Goldstein family of New York, is now taking reservations and will officially open in Anguilla on February 1, 2016. Here's the latest.

Zemi Beach House, developed by the Goldstein family of New York, is now taking reservations and will officially open in Anguilla on February 1, 2016.

Located in Anguilla on one of the Caribbean's best beaches, Shoal Bay East, the boutique property will open with 70 keys. By the end of 2016, the beachfront resort will expand to 129 keys composed of 54 dedicated hotel rooms and 50 luxury residences that can be placed into a rental program managed by Trust Hospitality.

Upon opening, Zemi Beach House will be the first resort to open on Anguilla's East End, known for its powdery beaches, private villas and beach bars, and the first new-build hotel on the island in six years.

Accommodations consist of Deluxe rooms with ocean views starting at $699 per night; Superior Corner King rooms; two-bedroom and three-bedroom oceanfront suites with a private terrace and plunge pool; three-bedroom penthouses with terraces, a living room, kitchen and rooftop plunge pool. All guestrooms have balconies or terraces with sea- or oceanfront views.

In-room amenities will include a loudspeaker with bluetooth, Caribbean mini bar, high-speed Wi-Fi, cable TV with international channels, motion sensor AC system and Malin + Goetz toiletries. Services will feature private chefs, in-room dining and in-room spa treatments.